Certaine profitable rules and brieue obseruations concer- ning Husbandry.

The best time to sow all kinde of coorne, is when the Moone goeth her course in Cancer.

The best time to set, Plant, graffe and sow, the Moone and season duely considered, is when the Moone hath her course in Taurus, Virgo, or Capricornus, especially betwixt the change and full.

Best time to buyd wchall, when the Moone is towards the last quart. He being then in Aquarius or Pisces.

Crope trees and sell wood to burne, that the stocke may be better and sooner grow againe, when the Moone is in her last quart.

Remoue and set young trees, in the last quart of the Moone in Taurus, or Capricornus, and that in the moneths of September, October, Nouember, and Februarie.

The best time to cut your bynes, is in February or in Maye, the Moone increasing in Taurus, Virgo, or Libra.

The best time to gette cattel, the Moone decreasing in Aries, Sagittarius, or Capricornus.

The best time for to sheare Sheepe, is in the increasing of the Moone, that is, from the change to the full.

Take heed that it may the sooner grow againe, the moone increasing in Taurus, Virgo, or Libra.

To mucke or dunge your lande, that the weedes may not grow thereby, is in the decreasing of the Moone, that is, from the full to the change.

NEVE.

A Prognostication, ser-uing for the yeere of our Lord God and Saviour
Iesus Christ.

1604.

Being the Bissextile, or Leape yeere.

Practised and collected of causes naturall, and penned according to the learned Rules of ancient Astrologers and sage Philosophers: for the benefite of all such as shall be desirous of such a worke.

Seruing generally for all Englande, but especially for the Peridot of great Parimouth in Noiff.

By Ieslerie Neve:

Practitioner of Physicke, and Student in the Mathematickes.

Imprinted at London for Thomas Dawson and Humfry Hooper.

To the beneuolent Reader.

Here are two things haue imboldned me (gentle Reader) to publish this yeeres Prognostication: the one in regarde of the generall benefites it affordeth to the Common wealtb, in declaring the Revolution of the Starres and Planets, as also diuers other necessary Rules and Directions for the health and preservation of mans body, which is the Summum bonum, that is to be required in this life: The other, because I would be loth with the idle Seruant in the.25. of Math. To hide my Talent in the earth, but rather to imploy my labour to the good of my Countrey: for as M.C. sayth, Non nobis sed patriæ, Virtutes are not borne onely for our selues, but also for the good of our Countrey. These considerations haue stirred mee vp to indure my Studie to this purpose. If therefore any carping Mome shall seeme to reprehend that which he cannot amende, I shall be contented to say, Difficile est Momo satisfacere: and so leave him, to his not male content, but rather malicious Mule. Thus wishing and desiring thee to regarde the generall good that I wish, and that this small Treatise doth afford, I leave thee to the iudgement of thy Almightie.

Thine in this or the like

Jeffery Neale

A briefe Description of the cause concerning the Bissextile, or Leape yeere.

Julius Caesar the first and most renowned Emperour of Rome, perceiuing that the Romans had a long time painfully labored in searching out the direct course and true space of the yeere, & withal conceiuing how greatly they were deceiued in the obseruation of the same; knowing their wanted & common yeere to be correspondent neither to the Sphæricall Revolution of the Sunne, nor to the equate motion of the Moone. He did take a profitable iorney to Rome to Egypt, where he precisely learned of the Egiptians the true and exact quantitie thereof: and then returning thence againe to Rome, he did, by the helpe of one Sozigenes an Astrologer, sufficiently correct and finally amende their former errors: And added a .ii. dayes & sixe howers, that the yeere might agree and be equall with the Revolution of the sunne, from whence they digressed; which is now called the Roman yeere, or, the yeere of the Sunne; which is the naturall yeere containyng .365. dayes and .6. howers: For which quantitie, or sixe howers euery yeere exceeding, he ordayned that euery fourth yeere one whole naturall Day should be added to be inserted alwayes on the euen of Saint Matthias the Apostle, who of then, and euery fourth yeere since it was, and called Annus Bissextus, because the Roman and Wea, from thence is cannot reckon Bis sextæ Calend. Martij. And so by addition of one day, the Leape yeere consisteth of 366.

A description of the Leape yeere.

dayes, one day more then the common yeere hath: which was therefore inserted or intercalated in Februarie, because it hath fewer dayes then any of the other Monethes hath. So this was, and is the true perfect description of the Bissextile or Leape-yeere, as it was deuised by Iulius Caesar in the .45. yeere before the birth of our Sauour Iesus Christ, and is therefore called Calendarius Iulianum: according to the Computation whereof, Februarie in the Common yeere had .29. dayes, and in the Leape-yeere .30. dayes. But after that Octavius Caesar the second Emperour of Rome, sonne of Octavius a Senator, and Nephew to Iulius Caesar, whom he succeeded in the Empire, was by the free consent & approbation of the Senate, surnamed Augustus; there was one day detracted out of Februarie, and added to the moneth Sextile, in honour of Augustus: and because it was most fortunate and happy for that Emperour, it was called Augustus which before had but .30. dayes, that by this aduantage the dayes of August myght be equall with the dayes of Iuly (which was so named of Iulius Caesar, because he was created Dictator the .4. Iulus thereof, being before called Quintilis quasi quintus & Martius) least by any such defect, Augustus should seeme inferiour to Iulius: by which meanes, Februarie being deprived of one day, hath now but .28. dayes in the Common yeere, and .29. dayes in the Leape yeere.

A Description of the foure Quarters of this yeere of our Lord God. 1604.

Of Winter. Summe in v. m. x.

Winter, according to our usuall English Computation, becometh the .xi. day of December in the yeere foregoing, at the first entring of the Sunne into the first degree of the signe Capricorne: at which time, the Sunne shall be at his farthestmost distance from our South or Verticall point: which maketh the shortest day in the yeere. This season is of nature cold and moyst flegmatick, and wering to the complexion of old men, and agreeable to the element of Colde.

Of the Spring. Summe in v. m.

This Spring becometh the .i. day of March being Saturday, the Sunne then entring into the equinoctiall signe Aries and rising at .vi. of the clocke in the morning, and setteth at .vi. in the evening, the day & night being then of an equall length through the whole world. This Quarter is hot and moyst: and that temperately without excrement, and therefore accompted the most holloome time in all the yeere: For notwithstanding paynes gotten before, may be best remedied and remooued: and grieues and diseases feared to come, may be best prevented and avoided.

Of Summer. Summe in s. n. m.

Summer becometh the .vi. day of June, when the Sun entrech into Cancer, making the longest day & shortest night in the whole yeere. This season, according to his proper nature, is hot & dry, resembling the element of Fire and complexion of Chollic, bringing all Fruites to their ripeness, Cattle to their fatnesse, and Men to their wealth.

Of Haruest. Summe in a. m. f.

The Haruest Quarter, called also Autumne, is sayd to begin the .ix. day of September, when the Sunne entrech into Libra, making the second Equinoctiall, the day and night being of a full equall length, the Sunne rising and setting at .vi. of the same day. This Quarter is naturally cold and dry, variable and vnconstant, warme in the day time, and cold in the night time: very dangerous in diseases & Diseases in some persons, as in those that be aged, which as haue perfectly cured of their Summer maladies. &c.

A declaration of the dayly inclination and disposition of the Windes and weather, according to the influences and diuers motions of the Starres and Planets: with the day, howre, and minute, of the change of the Moone, her full, and quarters. And also of the rising and setting of the Sunne in euery month of this yeere of our Lord God.

Nouc. 1604.

The morning: and. xii. and xiii. dayes, saye. The xiiii. xv. and xvi. dayes, and variable. The xvii. and xiiii. pleasant weather.

The next Poone, the xix. day. xxvi. minutes after. vi. of the clocke in the morning: and. xx. day. cloudy, with some overcasting. The xxi. and xxii. somewhat windy. The xxiii. and xxiiii. some Apriill showers. The. xxv. not unlike the former.

The first Quarter, the. xxvi. day, at. ix. of the clocke at night: and. xxvii. xxviii. xxix. and. xxx. dayes, all like to poone very temperate. In this moneth of Apriill, the pores of men are opened, and are apt to receive Physicke: and they that now refuse the same, I commit them to the benefite of Nature: for of all times of the yeere, this is the best to prevent causes of Sicknesse, as for speedy remedie in extremities: for now Nature her selfe both remedie strength through all the body, so, where Sicknesse happeneth, she soone unburdeneth by the meanes of Physicke. Wherefore what it cannot do now, hereafter it will hardly be done: therefore take time whilst time is.

The first day of Apriill the Sunne riseth at. 5. a clocke, and. 18. minutes.

Setteth at. 6. and. 43. minutes.

The. 7. day the Sunne riseth at. 5. a clocke, and. 6. minutes.

Setteth at. 6. and. 54. minutes.

Setteth at. 7. and. 6. minutes.

The. 21. day the Sunne riseth at. 4. a clocke, and. 39. minutes.

Setteth at. 7. and. 21. minutes.

The. 28. day the Sunne riseth at. 4. a clocke, and. 29. minutes.

Setteth at. 7. and. 31. minutes.

Of May.

The first, a faire May day. The. ii. day, apt to rain.

The full Poone, the. iii. day. xxxix. minutes before high noone, in Scorpio, some fall of moyshure. The. iii. v. and. vi. dayes fair.

The. vii. viii. and. ix. pleasant weather.

The last Quarter, the. x. day. xxx. minutes after. vi. of the clocke at night: and. xi. and. xii. dayes, like to some show of rain. The. xiii. xiiii. and. xv. temperate. The. xvi. and. xvii. not much disagreeing from the former.

The

A Prognostication.

The new Moone, the xlii. day. xxviii. minutes after. viii. of the clocke at night: and. xii. and. xx. dayes, windy and tempeate. The. xli. and. xlii. bent to some draynes. The. xliii. windy. The. xliiii. and. xlv. dayes, hot weather.

The first Quarter, the. xvi. day. iii. minutes after. iii. of the clocke in the morning: and. xxviii. and. xlviii. good weather. The. xli. and. xlii. some wind: with sometime some raynie showers.

In this month of Maye, rise early, for Maye loveth no sluggardes. And let such as be in health and able, walke into the fieldes: and eate and drinke a little beewines: And for such as are sick, it is yette very goodd time to take Physicke. Such as are whole, God keepe them in health: and such as be sick, God send them good Physitions and Physicke. And after this Month, blood Physicks farewell till September: except neede shal enforce thee.

The first day of Maye the Sunne riseth at. 4. a clocke, and. 23. minutes. Setteth at. 7. and. 38. minutes.

The first Quarter, the .xxiii. day .li min. before high noone; and .xxiiii. continued to some rayne. The .xxv. .xxvi. and .xxvii. dayes, very hot. The .xxviii. and .xxix. sometime clowdy.

The full Moone, the .xxx. day at .vi. of the clocke at night: and .xxxi. sayre and pleasant.

A Prognostication.

In this moneth of July, use cold Hearbes and cold meates, abstaine from Whilcke, and extreme exercises and labour: and now the Rivers are more holsonne then the Bathes, &c.

The first day of July the Sunne ryseth at 3. a clocke, and 54. min.
Setteth at 8. and 6. minutes.

The 7. day the Sunne ryseth at 3. a clocke, and 59. minutes.
Setteth at 8. and one minute.
